

CAIRD HALL, DUNDEE, ORGANATHON 8TH MARCH 2025

I am participating in the ORGANATHON 2025, playing a programme of around 20 minutes, which will consist of a small number of my own pieces and improvisations on submitted themes. Details of the event can be found on this link and of course, all are welcome to attend free of charge for any part of the performance programme. The timetable and list of performers can be found here.

This event is to raise funds for some essential work on the world-famous 1923 Caird Hall organ, details of which can be found on this link.

I would be most grateful if you would consider sponsoring me for this event and for what is a very worthy cause.

Please fill in the form below including the pledged amount but leave the 'date paid' column blank, include your email address, and return to me at the below address.

Shortly after the event is over, I will contact you with official confirmation that my contribution to the event was completed. Would you then please forward the pledged sum to my personal bank account, including FOCHO in the reference. The collated sums will then be sent to the FOCHO account. (It is unfortunately not practical to do this directly into the FOCHO account; donations from multiple sponsors of each of the 15 players would leave the FOCHO treasurer with a massive workload to collate!)
